ARTICLE VII: AWARD "ORQUÍDEA DE LOS ANDES"

The orchid, national flower of Colombia, represents the progress of Sumapaz (where FICFUSA takes place) because the region is linked to the cultivation of their species. It is a symbol of the colorful natural beauty of the area. Based on this concept, prizes will be the work of a regional artist.

The main award of the contest will be an "Orquidea de los Andes" (Orchid of the Andes) for: "Women fighters" and "The Voice that Breaks the Silence"

Our intention from the FICFUSA is to recognize the work of filmmakers through their films contributing to build the equitable society we dream.

WOMEN FIGHTER. "Orquídea de los Andes" to the film in the international feature film competition, which highlights the work of those who fight for the defense of fundamental women rights worldwide.

VOICE BREAKING THE SILENCE. This "Orquídea de los Andes" will go to the film, which highlights the facts, characters or groups of women within a reality we ignored, or from an original point of view, or a reality sidelined by the mass media. This award will acknowledge the production team that, through their film, promotes to multiply the voices that break the silence.

ARTICLE VIII: JURY

Members of the jury will be: one international personality related to cinema, a national personality related to cinema and a regional personality related to culture. Decisions are made by majority vote under secret ballot. The Fusagasugá International Film Festival Directress may attend Jury deliberations, but cannot vote.
